

JANUARY 11, 1965

FRANK B. GIBNEY has been appointed editorial advisor and national correspondent to the Publishers Newspaper Syndicate, a subsidiary of Field Enterprises. Most recently Mr. Gibney was a temporary special assistant on the White House staff. Prior to that he had been the president of Show magazine and earlier he had worked for the United Press, Time Inc., Newsweek, and Show Business Illustrated. He was named publisher of Show in 1961 and president in 1964. Mr. Gibney is the author of five books on national and foreign affairs and has completed a sixth, "The Reluctant Space Farers," which will be published in March.